A Traffic Accident
By: Cristy Chan (4F)

Yesterday, my mother and I went shopping in Mong Kok. It was raining heavily. The place was very crowded. There was a heavy traffic on the street. Many people were rushing home.

While we were waiting at the bust stop, we saw a man who was drunk. He crossed the road and didn’t pay attention to the traffic lights. Suddenly, a minibus came. The driver was driving too fast. The man was knocked by the minibus. The people shouted, “Oh no!” The man was bleeding and motionless. My mother called the police. Many people came to see what happened. The driver was very sad and couldn’t believe it. I was shocked. The ambulance came and took the man to the hospital. The police brought the driver to the police station.

I was unhappy on that day. I thought about the accident. When we cross the road, we must always pay attention and follow the traffic sign. The drivers should drive carefully. Then, Hong Kong will be safer.
